SUMMARY

I am a dedicated and compassionate professional with a strong background in communications, project management, grant management, university instruction, digital accessibility, educational design, disability justice, and academic carework and mutual aid.

ACADEMIC PROJECT MANAGEMENT EXPERIENCE

GRANT PROJECT MANAGER

Jews of Color: Histories & Futures | 2022 – Present

I work closely with the Principal Investigator in raising the profile of this $250,000 grant project (funded by the Henry Luce Foundation) by maintaining financial records and grant reporting. I also create and maintain web and social media presence, along with other marketing, promotional, and outreach efforts. Additionally, I collaborate with the PI and Co-PIs on archival collecting, especially as it relates to public-facing aspects of the archive.

COMMUNICATION AND PROJECT ADMINISTRATOR

CU Boulder Program in Jewish Studies | 2021 – Present

I promote the Program in Jewish Studies by managing communications channels, engaging students, faculty, donors, and community members through public programs, and by providing administrative assistance to the Program Manager, Director, Singer Chair, and the CU Libraries' Innovations in Jewish Life Collection.

- Event Planning and Implementation
- Coordinate travel and reimbursement for JWST visitors
- Outreach, Marketing, and Communication
- Innovations in Jewish Life Collections Assistance
- Exhibit Design
- Website and Social Media Content Creation and Management

EDUCATIONAL DESIGN EXPERT

Anderson Language and Technology Center \(ALTEC\) | 2020 – Present

As part of a UISFL grant awarded to the Center for Asian Studies, I created a series of open access online learning modules to support student learning of Tibetan. The course serves as curriculum material for CU Boulder's Certificate in Tibetan and Himalayan Studies, as well as an Open Education Resource \(OER\) project, accessible to all external communities.

I also serve as Project Manager for a 3-year Curriculum Quality project based on CU Boulder's Quality Teaching Initiative that aims to improve the non-credit language classes, as well as support and empower ALTEC's contingent faculty.

- Facilitated ALTEC/BGHRA partnership for free classes for Black learners
- Designed FREE Foundations Course for 7 languages
- Designed syllabi templates for all ALTEC language classes
- Created the placement assessment for non-credit German classes
